Post published 8/2/2012, became "Sticky" 4/15/2016, slight revs to top part 12/15/2016

From this post:

People seem to have short memories (or, attention spans) on informal forums, so I figured out a signature block to quit re-explaining basic material.

There has to be a way to check facts and assemble a workable theory that doesn't entail slavery for most and freedom for some. That alone is an ECONOMIC matter, a COMMERCE matter, and as such, has to be dealt with — what are these courts really for? We can say “kids for cash” and “stop child-trafficking” til we are blue in the face, but sooner or later such things as the murder/suicide of Georgia Senator Nancy Schaeffer and her husband — which was most likely NOT anything close to a murder/suicide — have to be dealt with

My Ideal signature block would show my Current Understanding as Quips with Links for “thinks.”

This is how it looked 4-5 years ago for use in a public forum:

- JURISDICTION sets RIGHTS.
- USConstitution Title28/IV sets Jurisdiction
- Citizenship in USA, Inc. = YOU became collateral for USA Debt

War=Debt Collection. pSILENT weapons = biological warfare by few to enslave MOST.

In 2016/2017, I probably would change some links, but retain the basic concepts. (Will be repeated again, below.)
