For well over a century, we've been an integral part of the U.S. legal system and have given our customers a powerful competitive advantage by providing the highest quality legal, regulatory and business information. Attorney authored and enhanced content like headnotes and case summaries, digests, West Key Numbers and the National Reporter System formed the basis of Westlaw and KeyCite, and decades later, this same attorney authored content and taxonomy have become the critical metadata for WestSearch on the world's most advanced legal research system, Westlaw.

Moving forward, our vision is simple, yet powerful: Thomson Reuters will give our customers smarter ways to work by providing unrivaled legal solutions that integrate content, expertise and technologies. We've built a portfolio of products that span practice and management for litigators, corporate counsel, business lawyers, government legal professionals and small law firm attorneys – legal solutions built to help our customers thrive.
