

Our Learning Agenda

"Keep 'em Clicking and Hoping, Don't Tell What it is you're NOT telling readers.... PR...DISTRACTION"

For this round of grants, OFA also included a new emphasis on key short- and long-term outcomes intended to enhance evaluation and strengthen program design. This learning agenda is designed to increase understanding of what works and why.

Showing HHS' basic "tell, but don't show all" policy towards readers: Withhold info on the existence of a database where these can be looked up, that there is a classification system of programming (CFDA.gov) or what is the CFDA under which these are awarded, and how they might be searched.

Our Grantees

HMRF programs are funded under a 5-year project period (2015 – 2020). There are 47 Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education grantees (including a National Resource Center for Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education); 39 New Pathways for Fathers and Families grantees, and 5 ReFORM grantees.
