

[ ] = These three look like pre-existing foundations.
 "Community" Fndtns are major powerhouses in any area and generally will be participating in increasingly centralized control of public institutions involving funding from federal agencies USDOE, HUD, HHS, and/or DOJ. They often use donor-advised funds (DAFs). The Calif Community Fndtn seems to be the only one in its category here – notice "Calif" is a huge state, so calling it "community" is already odd. The other two (Rural School & Community Trust) is in WDC and an education-specific fndtn in SLC Utah.

Informal color-coded "Legends" are by me.**
