

Editor-in-Chief of Family Court Review Seeks Journal Articles

CFCC Founder & Director Barbara Babb, who also serves as the Editor-in-Chief of the Family Court Review (FCR), is seeking articles for publication in the FCR. The FCR, published by the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts, is the leading interdisciplinary academic and research journal for family law professionals. For more information please visit the AFCC website.

CFCC's Unified Family Court Connection is the only publication in the U.S. devoted to the development and advancement of unified family courts.

Quite possibly because outside of certain privately networked interests, there IS no grassroots demand for anything of the sort. But, will that deter the affiliated professionals in their mission?

(UNIFIED FAMILY COURTS as a general model, represent a jurisdiction grab. An example of one mentored by this same CFCC was later raided by the FBI after it came under suspicion for RICO (Lackawanna County, Scranton, PA 2011) --

The Sayra and Neil Meyerhoff Center for Families, Children and the Courts promotes policies and practices that unite families, communities and the justice system to improve the lives of children and families and the health of communities. CFCC advocates the use of therapeutic jurisprudence, the understanding that the legal system has an effect on behavior, emotions and mental health.

Barbara A. Babb is Associate Professor of Law, University of Baltimore School of Law, as well as Founder and Director of the Sayra and Neil Meyerhoff Center for Families, Children and the Courts.

CFCC Staff and Contributors: Gloria Danziger, Senior Fellow; Michele Hong-Polansky, Program Manager; Anthony "Bubba" Green, Truancy Court Program Mentor; Spencer Hall, Truancy Court Program Coordinator; Phyllis Zhu, Truancy Court Program Social Worker; Katie Davis, Truancy Court Program Attorney; Marcellus Anderson, Program Administrative Specialist; Kevin Hagin, Administrative Assistant.

AND – "let's get honest" – historically affiliated and a loyal promoter of the PRIVATE INTEREST, PRIVATELY RUN NONPROFIT, NETWORKED with other PRIVATE INTEREST, PRIVATELY RUN NONPROFITS (like NCJFCJ) ALSO INVOLVING FAMILY COURT JUDGES, 501©3, "AFCC." But (take it on faith) all of this is for the good of the public, families, children, and the health of communities.
